BADGE OF PRACTICE

ٱلْحَسِيبُ

Al-Ḥasib

Reckoner

The 3 simple steps · Daily: good character and thoughtful silence

This badge records that the name below showed good character, with courteous and polite behaviour, for 30 consecutive days, holding themselves to account before Al-Ḥasīb (The Reckoner).

WHAT WAS PRACTISED

Holding yourself to account for how you treat people: in every interaction, aim to leave people in a better state than when you met them. Show mercy, inspire hope, and express love and kindness in every exchange.

WHAT WAS AVOIDED

Bad character: harshness, rudeness and leaving people worse off

> The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, 'O Abu Dharr, shall I not inform you of two virtues which are lighter on your back and heavier on the scales than any other? You should have good manners and observe long periods of silence. I swear by He in whose Hand is my soul, no one can perform better deeds than these two virtues.'
